DYAL SINGH COLLEGE TRUST SOCIETY

Dyal Singh College, Karnal is run by Dyal Singh College Trust Society. The college is a premier co-educational institution of Haryana. The institute owes its inception to the munificence and philanthropic zeal of its illustrious founder, Sardar Dyal Singh Majithia. What started as a single institution to gather and spread 'the wisdom of the East and the West' has now blossomed into a multifaceted chain of institutions.

Dyal Singh College is located in the heart of the city of Karnal. The city is very strategically situated on the historic Grand Trunk Road, now called Sher Shah Suri Marg or National Highway No. 1, midway between Delhi and Chandigarh. Though the college was originally established in May 1910 in Lahore, after the partition in 1947 the college was re-established at Karnal on September 16, 1949 to nurture academically thousands of young men and women of this area, who then sorely felt the need of a worthwhile academic institution between Ludhiana and Delhi.

VISION

Excellence is a journey, not an end ...

MOTTO/MISSION
