Extension lecture on “Educating Students for various Competitive Exams”

On 2nd June 2021, Commerce Association in collaboration with Career Guidance and Placement Cell, Dyal Singh College, Karnal organised an Online Extension Lecture for UG and PG students on the topics of “Educating students about various competitive exams”.

The lecture was delivered by Mr. Ashish Goel, A leading Education Consultant and an alumnus of Dyal Singh College, Karnal.

Dr. Dimple Khosla, President Commerce Association welcomed Sh. Sanjay Kumar, Principal Dyal Singh College Karnal, the Speaker of the day Mr, Ashish Goel and the participants. She introduced Mr. Ashish Goel to the students. Sh. Sanjay Kumar, congratulated Commerce Association and Career Guidance and Placement cell for taking up such an important topic for the benefit of the students. Dr. Mukta Jain, Head, Department of Commerce threw light on the relevance of this topic. She said that it is very important to remove the dilemma of the students at this age.

Mr. Ashish talked about various career opportunities available, selection of a career, preparation for these exams, various ingredients for success, various myths, certain practical issues and some common preparation fundamentals.

During the lecture, Mr. Ashish Goel highlighted the importance of selecting their own career paths very wisely. He said, “One of the most important metrics that define success is the dedication with which an individual pursues their goals. When students are allowed to follow a career path of their choice, they are naturally more involved in it – to the extent where their chosen profession is not just a means to an end but a way of life itself. Since they feel much more contented in a profession of their own choice, they feel motivated and inspired to get even better. He said “Don’t limit your challenges; challenge your limits!”

Mr. Ashish Goel also advised students to take up online courses, many of which are available free of cost and to acquire some new academic skills especially during this pandemic to utilise their time more effectively.

After the session, Dr. Vandana Sabharwal, Co-President of Commerce Association read the queries of the participants and each of them were resolved by Ashish Goel

At the end of the lecture, Dr. Randhir Singh, Convener, Career guidance and Placement Cell formally proposed the vote of thanks.
