- A “Poetical Recitation” was organised for the students of Post-Graduation and Honours on April 7, 2017. Students presented poetic pieces on a wide variety of topics and received valuable feedback from the judges.

- Two Extension Lectures were organized for the students of Post-Graduation and Honours on September 14, 2017. Eminent speakers and academicians Dr P. Sengupta and Dr Neena Arora delivered their lectures on “Feminism: A Historical Perspective” and “Aristotle’s Mimetic Theory of Tragedy” respectively. The lectures enlightened the students on the concerned subject area and offered theoretical and practical insights on the topic.
