Govt regularises 2 Karnal colonies

PARVEEN ARORA
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

KARNAL, MAY 9
In response to residents of 23 unauthorised colonies, the state government has regularised these. The municipal corporation (MC) has sent a proposal for regularisation of 66 colonies.

As per MC officials the government has imposed a condition of depositing development charges by residents for regularisation. Basant Vihar, Lodha Gandhi, Old Pritampura, Krishna Complex, LIC Colony-II, Palm Colony, SP Colony, DC Colony, Bank Colony, Old Durga Colony, Durga Colony, Narendra Colony, Uttam Nagar, Saraswati Colony, MC Colony, Ashok Vihar, Indira Colony, Lovekush Colony, Pal Nagar, Hakikatnagar, Sanjay Colony, Pal Nagar-I and Saidpura Colony are among the regularised colonies.

Confirming the notification, Mayor Renu Bala Gupta said it was a long-pending demand of residents, who had protested several times for regularisation of their colonies.

She said Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar had assured residents of regularisation of their colonies. Thanking the Chief Minister, the Mayor said he had kept his promise so that residents could get better facilities. The MC House had raised the issue before several times, she said. Dheeraj Kumar, MC confirmed the notification on regularisation of colonies. He said the residents would have to pay development charges of more than 7,500 metres would have to pay Rs 1,000 per square metre those with plots between 5,000 and 7,500 square metres those owning plots between 5,000 square metres per square metre.

Dharam Singh, a local resident, thanked the Minister for regularisation but demanded reduction in development charges. Rajinder Arya, another resident, said they had protested in support of the demand and the government had accepted it.

Several colonies were waiting for regularisation. Residents of Rajivpuram Vikas Colony met the Mayor on Monday and demanded regularisation of both colonies.

Residents led by Kumar told the Mayor both colonies were among the oldest in the city, but were waiting for regularisation.

The state government had ignored both colonies while granting regularisation, he pointed out. He demanded regularisation for these colonies.

Like Modi, Capt Amarinder only makes empty promises: Kejriwal

Says Cong protecting those behind sacrilege incidents

RAVNEET SINGH

PATIALA, MAY 17
Arvind Kejriwal, Delhi Chief Minister and Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) national convener, on Friday called upon people to elect AAP candidate Neena Mittal from Patiala. He said the 'maharajas' had never come out among people to listen to their grievances and they should be given a befitting reply. Around 250 people were part of his roadshow in Patiala city.

Kejriwal raised questions over the "unfulfilled" promises of Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh and said "he only makes empty assurances like Modi".

"The people feel cheated. The Congress has failed to fulfil its promises even after two-and-a-half years in power. If you want your state government to fulfil its promises, then vote for Neena Mittal. We will get those promises fulfilled," he said and added that the state government failed to provide complete loan waivers, job in every household, smartphones to youth, and old age, widow and handicapped pension.

Kejriwal slammed Amarinder on Bargari and Behbal Kalan botch-ups and said the state government had been protecting those who were behind sacrilege incidents. "Captain Amarinder had taken a solemn vow in presence of Sri Guru Granth Sahib to bring the culprits to justice but he has failed to live up to the peoples' aspirations," he added.

He said both the SAD and Congress had signed a pact in the ongoing Lok Sabha elections. "Captain Amarinder and Sukhbir Badal have signed pacts to ensure that their wives win from their respective constituencies. People should keep their eyes open and not vote for them."

He also listed achievements of the Delhi government and said the capital had witnessed development under the AAP government.

OCTOBER 4

CM Charanjit Singh Channi gives a memo to Guv Banwarilal Purohit.

The Chief Minister reiterated the need for urgent review and repeal of the three farm laws, which had caused resentment amongst farmers.

Channi said the recent violence in Uttar Pradesh had shaken the conscience of one and all. "It was all the more painful that our 'annadatas' (farmers) have lost lives in this unfortunate act while protesting peacefully against the farm laws," he observed. — TNS

Conduct judicial inquiry: SAD

LUDHIANA, OCTOBER 4

SAD president Sukhbir Singh Badal today said a high-level delegation of the party, led by Prem Singh Chandumajra, would visit Lakhimpur Kheri on a fact-finding mission into yesterday's violence against protesting farmers. He also demanded a judicial probe into the attack on farmers.

Talking to mediapersons here, Sukhbir said the delegation had already left for UP and the party would hold an emergency meeting of its core committee on Tuesday to finalise its next course of action after going through the report of the delegation.

The SAD chief urged the

The UP Government should not try to protect the guilty. BJP leaders accused of violence should be arrested immediately.

UP Government to take stern action against the culprits, including Union Minister of State for Home

Ajay Mishra's son.

Sukhbir also called for a free and fair judicial probe into the incident, saying "it seems inflammatory speeches were made by the minister the same day to incite people. Action should be taken on this issue separately".

He also condemned the restrictions imposed by the administration at Lakhimpur Kheri. "Freedom of movement is a fundamental right of every citizen and the UP Government cannot restrict access to any part of the state," he said.

Sukhbir asked PM Narendra Modi to repeal the three farm laws. "The PM should respect the sentiments of farmers," he said. — TNS
